FineDocs Product Suite and Solution has been a great success, this is what our customers say and not us. The proof of the pudding lies with having satisfied customers. A few of them are illustrative below :

" We shall definitely not be surprised if we hear that FineDocs has become the market leader. The FineDocs solution's team are true professionals - they create relationship more than selling and forgetting thereafter. We tried and tested many an ECM vendors before we decided upon FineDocs. While others wanted to sell their DMS products we found FineDocs to be a complete ECM platform. -Vice President of a Leading Infrastructure Company based out of Delhi/NCR **"

" Solution from FineDocs works smoothly and never stalls your work in the middle. We had adopted FineDocs when we were going through issues of integrated decision impasse and frequent system glitches. We had to shift focus and we finally resorted to using FineDocs. The transformation since then has been phenomenal– the decision making process has accentuated our delivery and in turn the revenue. -Managing Director of a leading Audit Firm **"

" We wanted a solution provider who could fit the very complex requirement of our very large and complex organization that had myriad fractioned legacy systems and terabytes of content to be handled. We are more than satisfied with the way it has been done by the crafty FineDocs team and the solution package. -Senior Officer in the Ministry of Defence **"

" The FineDocs ECM suite implemented at our plant that has been integrated with existing ERP solution – has revolutionized the data handling and decision making process. The plant has seen increased performances all around. -Chief Operations Officer of a Steel Plant with Global Presence **"

FineDocs ECM is Changing the Way Organizations Manage Document, Content, Information and the Business Processes

Capture, Create, Classify & Structure

Capture to Archive or Capture to Process with FineDocs Capturing

Document, Content, Information and Data originate from myriad sources and is presented to you in a variety of forms (Email, Fax, Document, Invoice, Transactional Data - ERP, Audio, Video and more..)

Document Capture (FineDocs), Forms Processing Applications (FineForms), Email Capture, Fax Capture and the Data Capture from ERP, SAP and other Transactional Systems through highly collaborated capture capabilities of FineDocs ECM Platform.

Information Management starts with capturing the content and converting them into active information that can respond to your search and be available to ensure an informed decision making.

FineDocs automates the content creation and content acquisition process with enterprise class Products, Tools and Technologies which has smoother integration capabilities and has a flexibility of distributed and multi-geography synchronization Along with Capture and Acquisition, FineDocs allows for advanced classification with Manual as well as Automated Indexing of the content before their secure storage into an electronic repository.

Store & Secure

Experience the magic of electronic storage that separates Files from its Indexing. Few computer servers, occupying even fewer square feet of your IT Department, will have the capacity to store trillions of files.

This will result in reduce reality Support for multiple Databases (MS SQL and Oracle) makes it an even more sought after solution. Granular Security levels make FineDocs ECM the toughest nut to crack .

"Separate Files through apt Indexing"

You decide! View the easily accessible Document, Folder or WorkFlow OR Search them with a Powerful FineDocs Crawler. Search and find the information at lightning fast speed. With Advanced Filtering reduce document retrieval time by over 95%.

You can even subscribe to the Information and whenever any information is updated or changed it is synchronized and thus always updated.

Now that the Information is searchable and synchronized for you, we want you to enjoy your time and enjoy the world of technology!

Efficient search for your information with the Powerful FineDocs Crawler

" Achieve Process Improvement and ensure that every department works smart and achieves goal. "

A Green World With FineDocs

The World is in transition and making strides to stay green and save the planet for the coming generations. The greatest difference that Organization can make in this global quest is to move towards a paperless environment - whilst at the same time improving efficiency. The FineDocs solution provides for both.

The consumption of paper continues unabated across the global canvas. Resistance to change in organization processes is obviating the shift to complete transformation in terms of a paperless office environment. The magnitude of paper saved and in turn trees is unimaginable if the world can go paperless. Going paperless is easier said than done and organization the world are constantly struggling. What has stopped most of the organizations from going totally paperless? It is definitely not the resources; it is also not the lack of available solutions but lack of awareness about a good solution that can meet the need.
